RE: Takedown Request – Starkville Daily News

Mr. Gaines:

I have been retained by Edward Jacob Lueckenbach II regarding the removal of his name from the Starkville Police Department Blotter published on the Starkville Daily News website on or about September 29, 2010.

I have enclosed a screen grab of the website page in question. (The screenshot enclosed was accessed at http://starkvilledailynews.com/content/starkville-police-department-blotter on April 19, 2016.) Mr. Luekenbach was never charged with any criminal offense in connection with this arrest. I have also enclosed a copy of an order that expunged Mr. Luekenbach's arrest from his record.

Please remove Mr. Lueckenbach's name from any and all Starkville Daily News website pages on which he is listed as having been arrested. This letter is a good faith attempt to resolve this matter amicably.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jay Howard Hurdle
Attorney at Law

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF STARKVILLE, MISSISSIPPI

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

v. CAUSE NO. ____________

EDWARD JACOB LUECKENBACH II DEFENDANT

ORDER GRANTING EXPUNGEMENT

THERE CAME ON FOR CONSIDERATION this day, the Motion for Expungement of Defendant EDWARD JACOB LUECKENBACH II. This Court having heard the evidence and considered the same, finds as follows:

1. Edward was arrested on September 29, 2010, allegedly for public drunkenness.
2. Edward was released from custody with no charges brought against him; the city has declined to prosecute.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 99-19-71(4), the agents and employees of the Starkville Police Department and the Clerk of this Court shall expunge (that is, erase, strike, and obliterate) all official public and non- public records pertaining to the above styled and numbered case and relating to the defendant's arrest, affidavit, warrant, jail docket book entries, booking information, fingerprint cards and photographs taken during booking, the entire court file of this case, the data processing software, microfilm, and the name of the Defendant on any minute book, docket book, or index as the same applies to his case. This Order shall not apply to the confidential records of the Starkville Police Department.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk of this Court and the Starkville Police Department shall send a copy of this order to the Criminal Justice Information Division, who shall forward a copy of same to the U. S. Department of Justice and Criminal Justice Information Services Division, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306, to expunge such records and copies thereof furnished to the FBI by such agencies, which include fingerprint records, "mug shot" photographs, and booking information concerning this case, and to advise the FBI that the defendant's name is EDWARD JACOB LUECKENBACH II, his date of birth is January 25, 1974, his social security number is 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, the charge is one count of public profanity or drunkenness, the arrest date is September 29, 2010, and the cause number is "none" in the Municipal Court of Starkville, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi.

Further, all agencies shall acknowledge receipt of said expungement order and send confirmation of the expungement to the clerk of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the effect of this Order be to restore Defendant, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied before he was arrested on this charge and the affidavit was filed against him, and not be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such affidavit, warrant, or arrest in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, this the 14th day of April, 2016.
